

I strongly support the retention of the new jersey "do-not-call" law. We do not need to provide additional outlets for the further enfringment of an individual's privacy simply because he/she has had a prior relationship with a vendor.